

Consolato Generale d'Italia Filadelfia, Pennsylvania, Stati Uniti

PROCEDURES FOR TRANSPORTING HUMAN CREMAINS INTO ITALY

- 1) The funeral Home presents to the Consulate the documents listed in A) below;
- 2) The Consulate will request from the proper Italian Authorities the authorization allowing the remains to enter the Country for burial;
- 3) Once the said authorization is granted, the Consulate will issue the death Passport in the same name of the deceased and consign it to the Funeral Home.

A) DOCUMENTS:

To obtain the authorization to ship human/exhumed remains into Italy, the Funeral Home must submit the following documents to the Italian Consulate. Please take into consideration that the approximate processing time is five (5) working days from the day the authorization from the Comune arrives, provided proper documentation is received:

1. Two (2) certified copy of the death certificate completed with "Apostille". The "Apostille" is a legal document issued by the Office of the Secretary of State of the State where the death occurred (contact the Secretary of State for information concerning procedures and costs), to be attached to the death certificate and accurate translation into Italian (death certificate only);
2. One (1) certified cremation certificate in accordance with the procedures of the state where you operate (notarized, possibly on your own form, they must bear your certificate or Authority Number and the cremation number) completed with "Apostille" and an accurate translation into Italian is requested for said certificate (certificate only).
3. Funeral Home's statement (enclosure 1) duly sworn before a Notary Public;
4. Information sheet (enclosure 2) completely filled out. Please write the name of the Cemetery in Italy very clearly, including the town and the province where it is located;
5. Deceased Passport (for Italian citizens: original required; for foreigners: a copy);
6. Notarized letter from the family of the deceased (either residing here or in Italy) stating that the "Funeral Home (complete name and address of the Funeral Home) has been chosen to conduct all the procedures related to the shipment of the cremains into Italy, and the affixing of the Mortuary Passport on the urn. Alternatively, name of who is carrying the urn to its final destination and final resting place. This notarized letter can be either in English or Italian, no translation is needed;
7. Postal Money Order in the amount of roughly USD 74.00 (will fluctuate depending on the euro/dollar exchange rate) as Consular fees. Change will be given if amount surpasses dues.
